

RAUCH inc., a full-service professional design firm, seeks to fill immediate positions for

ENGINEERING DESIGN ASSOCIATE

JOB REQUIREMENTS:

- Minimum of three to five years' experience preferred
- Associate degree in CAD or a CAD Certificate
- CAD drafting software experience (i.e. AutoCad and HydroCad)
- Minimal experience with public works, site development, grading, erosion and sediment control, stormwater, and utility design

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Working under the supervision of a P.E. or Project Manager to provide engineering design services for a variety of projects;
- Design calculations;
- Preparing grading, storm water management, and erosion and sediment control designs;
- Prepare construction plans and site plans;
- Prepare documents and reports and compile information for permitting;
- Ability to work within a team setting and community/collaborate with other disciplines within the firm (i.e. – survey, architecture, and environmental services); and
- Adhere to appropriate industry standards, regulatory requirements, and best practices.

SALARY & BENEFITS:

- Salary range of $45,000-$85,000 per year (commensurate with experience)
- Health insurance, Group Life Insurance, Short Term Disability, Long Term Disability, and Accidental Death and Dismemberment
- Health Savings Account
- SIMPLE IRA Plan
- Paid Holidays and Vacation

LOCATION:

- The position is located at our headquarters in Easton, Maryland.

APPLY:

- Please forward a resume, cover letter, references, and representative project examples to: cathy.mcfadden@raucheng.com. EOE.